Antique Dealers in Hertfordshire UK Welcome to our new website! We have now closed our High Street Antique Dealers Shop in Tring. We would like to thank all our customers for years of support and patronage. We hope that you will continue to support us in our endeavour to provide a more personalised service as one of the most popular antique dealers in Hertfordshire. With the substantial reduction in overhead costs we shall be able to offer you the same quality of merchandise you have become used to at a lower price. Please browse through our site and contact us with your requirements.

We have a selection of Persian rugs, Afghan Rugs and carpets on their own website persianandafghancarpets.co.uk please browse through the growing selection of stock there.

We are presently sharing a showroom with John Moore Antiques in Chawston, Bedfordshire. If you are searching for antique dealers in the Hertfordshire region then viewing can be arranged by appointment. Furthermore we will be exhibiting at various antiques fairs around the country, so if you would like a free invitation please contact us. Details of venues and dates will be listed on this site.

Lastly for notification of special offers and events please register on this site and we will automatically advise you.

We look forward to hearing from you.

Best wishes,

Suj & Jennifer Munjee.

Home insurance and how to cover antiques

Surprisingly, 6 million households in the UK do not have a home insurance policy, and face footing the bill themselves should an antique be robbed or damaged. This is a shocking statistic, as more than 600,000 instances of burglary are reported each year, meaning that the odds of getting burgled are worryingly high. Read more.

For many people antiques are a financial investment, and for this reason it is very sensible so ensure you have suitable home contents insurance. In the event of damage or theft you want to be covered. Read our guide to caring for antique furniture .

When you move home making sure you have suitable home insurance should be an immediate priority as few things are more valuable than your property and its contents. However, within a home some items are more valuable than others – with antiques often at the top of the list. Read our guide to find out more .
